

Timothy N. Koritz

Newly Appointed Trustee of the University of Illinois Board of Trustees

Experience:

- Staff Anesthesiologist, Rockford Memorial Hospital (1994-present)
- Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine, University of Illinois College of Medicine at Rockford, (1994-present)
- Major, USAF, Flight Surgeon, 7th Tactical Fighter Squadron, Holloman AFB, NM (1988-1991)
- Officer in Charge, Space Shuttle Emergency Medical Response Team, Holloman AFB, NM (1988-1991)

Awards and Honors:

- Distinguished Graduate, Aerospace Medicine Primary Course, Brooks Air Force Base (1987)
- Marshall Scholarship for Ph.D. study at Cambridge University (1978)
- Bronze Tablet, University of Illinois, Top 3 percent of graduating class (1978)
- Outstanding Teaching Assistant, Department of Chemistry, University of Illinois (1978)
- Phi Beta Kappa (1977)
- Children of Veterans Scholarship, University of Illinois (1975-1978)
- Valedictorian, Rochelle Twp. High School (1974)

Professional Memberships:

- Lifetime Member, University of Illinois Alumni Association
- Volunteer, Research Committee, University of Illinois College of Medicine
- Charter Member, Rapid Response Medical Team for Mass Casualty, Winnebago County
- Volunteer, Rockford Memorial Hospital
- Past President, Interfraternity Council, University of Illinois (1977-1978)
- Past President, Sachem Junior Activities Honorary, University of Illinois (1976-1977)
- Key Club International Trustee (1973-1974)
- Eagle Scout with Gold Palm, Boy Scouts of America (1970)

Education:

- University of Illinois, B.S. (1978)
- University of Cambridge, England, Ph.D., Immunology Division (1982)
- Harvard Medical School, M.D. (1987)
- University of Iowa, Resident in Anesthesia (1992-1994)
- University of Washington, Seattle, Intern in Internal Medicine (1987-1988)

Personal:

- One in four generations of family to attend the University of Illinois
- Resides in Roscoe, Illinois with his wife, Julie, and their four daughters